APRIL NINTH DATE SET FOR CHANGE OF CITY'S CLOCKS

Mayor N. Kammerand has been authorized by the common council to issue a proclamation placing Holland on the daylight saving time schedule at midnight, April 9. The aldermen decided to follow the lead of Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Kalamazoo, and other western Michigan cities, all of which will change their clocks on that date.

The daylight saving time system in the summer seems to have won for good in Holland. Not many years ago the request for the change of time each spring precipitated a hot debate in the council and also in the city at large. Nearly all took sides on the question and sometimes a hard fight was needed before the aldermen felt free to come to a decision. The past few years there has been no discussion. The change to daylight saving time early in the spring has been taken for granted and the aldermen have fallen into the habit of passing the necessary resolution as a matter of course, without debate. There will be an added incentive for the daylight saving schedule in Holland the coming summer because of the city's new playground movement. One of the important features of that program will be to have games in which it is hoped the whole community will take part. With daylight time in force, there will be opportunity to play quite a few games each night and it is believed that the extra hour will help considerably to popularize the playground plan in Holland. At some cities in this part of the state there is some sentiment in favor of having the advanced time schedule all year round. Kalamazoo is planning to vote on that question this spring. The result is being watched with interest by other cities in this part of the state.

WAS THE LONGEST BANQUET IN HISTORY OF HOLLAND

Without doubt the Eagles' installation and banquet at the Masonic temple Friday night was the longest session ever held in the city of Holland.

The Eagle flock came flying in from Muskegon, Ludington, Grand Rapids, Grand Haven, Jackson and Indianapolis at 6 o'clock. Preparation for installation started at 6:30. After the installation came the banquet and the speakers were still going strong at 2 o'clock in the morning.

ROBINSON TOWNSHIP STILL HAS ITS STILLS

A woman coming into the sheriff's office at Grand Haven telling of threats on the lives of herself and husband, Vincent Vidak, by C. Schmidtutz led to the finding of a still and the arrest of Vidak.

The officers, alarmed at the tale of near murder which the woman told, went to the Schmidtutz home in Robinson, where the Vidaks were living and found Vidak in the act of lighting a whisky still and with three pints of liquor in his possession.

He was arrested and on Thursday afternoon was arraigned before D. F. Fagelsen, circuit court commissioner, on a charge of possession and operation of a still. He waived examination and was bound over to circuit court.

Schmidtutz, who is an invalid, had possibly made threats of some violence but the officers found nothing out of order and no cause to arrest him. Vidak was placed on a $300 bond and Friday produced the amount. His case will probably come up in the coming term of court.

Mrs. J. A. VanderVeen has gone to Cambridge, Mass., to visit her daughter, Mrs. T. O. Yntema. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. G. Van Leeuwen.

PICNIC TALKED OF FOR THE FARMERS COMING SUMMER

There is some talk among local merchants of having another farmers' picnic the coming summer. The talk has not yet reached the stage of making definite plans, but there are some who believe that a revival of the old farmers' picnic custom would be a good thing for Holland.

The suggestion has been made that the picnic, if held, should be held in Holland itself and not at one of the resorts as was once the custom. Kollen park has been suggested as a good place to hold the festivities. There would be room there for a barbecue, for sports, and for all the activities that make a farmers' picnic a success.

The advantage of holding it there, or at least in the city itself, is for one thing this it would be easier to serve the guests. The service is given by the Holland Merchants' association as a rule, but it is often difficult to carry all the supplies all the way to one of the resorts. Near at hand, it would be possible to give the visitors better service with less effort.

Farmers' picnics were popular with the people of this section of Ottawa and Allegan counties at one time. They were held at Jensen park in the early days because they were promoted by the Holland interurban. But that road being out of business, the reason for holding the picnic there is gone, and some merchants feel that Holland itself is the logical place. The visitors could be entertained in every way just as well at Kollen park as at Jensen park.

Although no definite plans have been made, it is not unlikely that the question will come up for discussion at the next meeting of the Holland Merchants' association. It is felt that if a farmers' picnic is to be held, preparations should be made for it some time in advance.

WIND PREVENTS KITE CONTEST

The wind was too strong on Saturday afternoon for the big kite flying contest that had been scheduled at Riverview park. So it was decided to hold a preliminary contest on Sunday and have the main event on Tuesday afternoon of this week.

The contest will begin at three o'clock, all pupils having a chance to enter at that time because it is spring vacation and they are free from school duties. Excellent prizes are to be awarded to the winners in the various events. All boys are invited to take part.

GRAND HAVEN BOASTING OF GOOD BUSINESS

Grand Haven Tribune—The Nation's Business magazine has a map showing comparative business conditions of March, 1929, and 1927. Grand Haven is in the white or good business section. Almost the entire rest of the state however is located in the gray district which is not so good.

THREE GRAND HAVEN YOUTHS ARE FINED

William Lyndon, 20, David Lyndon, 19, and Bernard Midgag, three Grand Haven boys, were arraigned before Justice D. F. Fagelsen of Grand Haven, Thursday afternoon on a charge of breaking in a cottage. They pleaded guilty and were sentenced to stay ten days in jail, to pay a fine of $10 and costs of $3.70 and the amount of damage done to the property, to be determined by the owner.

These boys were the instigators of a party that broke into a cottage at Strawberry Point belonging to Carl Seltzer of Grand Rapids, on March 7. The party was a wild one from the looks of the cottage and the damages reported by the owner, said the officers. The sheriff has been on the trail of this crowd for sometime to determine the ring leaders of the affair. The boys are now serving their sentence.

The Pere Marquette railroad will begin repairs of many heavy miles of track along the docks from Union depot to Lake Michigan at Muskegon early next month. Repairs will be made on five sidings.

The total cost of repair and replacement will be between $40,000 and $50,000, according to an announcement made today by William T. Evans, Muskegon agent. Miss Janet Smith of this city was very pleasantly surprised at the shower which was given in her honor Friday evening at the home of the hostess, Miss Bertha M. Nienhuis, 38 East 17th St. The home was very attractive, being decorated with ferns and cut flowers. The guests were delightfully entertained with music, and many enjoyable games were played after which the bride-to-be became the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. A very dainty two-course luncheon was served by the hostess and all went home reporting a good time. Those present were: Miss Janet Smith, Mrs. Arend Smith, Mrs. William Strubbing, Mrs. Bertha M. Nienhuis, Mrs. Albert A. Nienhuis, Mrs. Henry Struer, Mrs. Paul Michielson, Mrs. Arthur Van Dyke, Mrs. Henry Hopp, Mrs. F. Smith, Miss Bertha M. Nienhuis and Miss Janet Nienhuis.

The United States civil service commission announces that an examination for railway postal clerk will be held next month at Grand Rapids, Mich. Applications can be secured from the secretary, U. S. Civil Service Commission, Federal Building, Grand Rapids, Mich. These applications must be on file in Washington, D. C. not later than April 9th. Applicants must have reached their 18th but not their 35th birthday on the day of examination and must be at least 5 feet 5 inches in height and weigh 130 pounds, unless entitled to preference on account of military service.

Members of the Bible class in Van Raalte Avenue Reformed church were surprised to find a prowler, supposedly asleep in the pulpit chair on the platform, when they entered for some chairs.

One of the men walked across the platform and, just as he switched on the light, looked into the face of a man, who pretended he was asleep. When he accosted the stranger, the latter mumbled some words and was unable to explain his presence in the building.

When he was searched police found a searchlight and a few jackknives in his pockets. The man is about 55 years of age and said he came from Saginaw.

Upon investigation the police found that the man's name was James McLearn. He stated that he found over the door a sign, "Welcome, walk in," and he did so. He could not explain, however, that the door was found barred and he was compelled to break in. He was arraigned before Justice Van Schelvel Thursday afternoon on a "breaking and entering" charge and will be tried in circuit court.

Joseph Mosier, Jr., son of Mayor Mosier, of Allegan, will be valedictorian of the grand old class of the Allegan high school, Supt. E. B. Killian announced today. Beulah Lehl, whose average for the four years was next highest, will be salutatorian. The class numbers 60 students.

Father D. D. Douglas Sunday celebrated the third anniversary of his coming to Holland. The anniversary happened to fall on Sunday and Father Douglas called attention to it in the services at Grace Episcopal church. Mr. Douglas came to Holland from London, Ontario, and during his three years' service here the local church has experienced a remarkable growth.

Raymond Lippert, 21, of Burnip, Allegan county, shot himself through the heart with a .22-caliber gun early Sunday morning.

Lippert, who has been married only about a month, had been out with a party of young men Saturday night and returned home late. Going to his home he did not enter his wife's bedroom but slept in another room. About 6 o'clock he arose and informed Mrs. Lippert he intended to kill himself, and went to the kitchen and shot himself through the heart before his wife could prevent him. Beside the window he is survived by his father, John Lippert, a merchant at Burnip. Coroner C. Clay Benson deemed an inquest unnecessary.

FOUR ARE VICTIMS SUNDAY NOON IN TERRIBLE CRASH

A terrible accident occurred Sunday noon on the Holland-Grand Rapids highway, just beyond Grandville when four persons, three of them children, lost their lives at a dangerous Pere Marquette railroad crossing on M-51.

A rebuilt switch engine from Wyoming yards was making a test run on the main line and unsuspectingly carried death to four who were passengers in a small sedan, caught on the curve that has been a trap to several other motorists before this. The fifth person in the car was so badly injured that death may follow shortly.

News of the terrible accident was brought to Holland by motorists continuing this way and soon spread, causing hundreds from this city to make the trip to the scene of the accident Sunday afternoon.

The victims in the crash who are dead are:

William T. Ames, 45, of Hamilton, Mich., die maker at the Keeler Brass company plant in Grand Rapids.

William Ames, Jr., 6, his son.

Florence Ames, 15, his niece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ames of 1918 Wyoming ave., Wyoming Park.

Clifford Ames, 7, brother of Florence.

Seriously hurt:

Floyd Ames, 21, son of William Ames, and assistant production manager for the National Brass company at Grand Rapids. Skull possibly fractured and in critical condition at Butterworth hospital.

The ride that brought tragedy to the two Ames families started just before noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ames in the suburb of Wyoming Park.

William Ames, who usually pays a Sunday visit at the home of his brother, drove with his sons, Floyd, and the youngest member of his family, William, Jr., aged 6 years. He remained for a time and then started back for his home at Hamilton, east of Grandville, taking in addition to his sons, two of his brother's children, who were to have their Sunday dinner with their cousins.

William Ames was at the wheel of his sedan when the car containing the five Ames family members, but positive evidence as to who was driving when the crash occurred was lacking Sunday night, despite the firm belief of surviving members of both families that none of the children ever drove the car and that Floyd was the only other person in the car besides the father who could.

The car appeared to stop at the Davis crossing, according to witnesses, as the locomotive, engine 704, approached from the north with this whistle sounding warning blasts. At the throttle was Engineer Roy L. Wantz of 933 Norwich ave., SW., Grand Rapids, and at the opposite side of the cab was Fire Willard Roberts of 1924 Grandville ave., SW., of Grand Rapids.

Roberts, who said he saw the Ames car draw up to the tracks, said that it was almost motionless when it suddenly started ahead. The locomotive bore down upon the car and its load of human freight and an instant later a terrific crash attracted the attention of a few persons near by.

One of the last things the fireman said he noticed was a girl at the wheel of the car. Roberts was certain of this fact and the only explanation given Sunday night was that Florence Ames, 15-year-old niece of William Ames, had asked her uncle's permission to take the wheel. This was regarded as not likely by members of both families.

The crash severed air lines on the front of the locomotive, which the crew believed was going about 35 miles an hour, and Engineer Wantz was virtually powerless to stop it. The chassis of the automobile was hurled against the embankment of the right-of-way a short distance south of the crossing, but the upper part of the sedan and four of the occupants were carried on the pilot of the locomotive, which continued on for about 2,000 feet. The locomotive speedometer, railway man said, revealed it traveled four-tenths of a mile past the crossing.

The three children died almost instantly. Florence with her arms around her brother, Clifford, 7, in a futile effort to protect the boy. Clifford's right leg was mangled and his face lacerated. His sister's left leg and arm were fractured. William, 6, their little cousin, died when his neck was broken in the crash.

William Ames, father of two and uncle of two of the occupants of the car, was found unconscious 100 feet beyond the crossing. Both his legs were fractured, his skull was crushed and his face was cut. He was rushed to St. Mary's hospital, Grand Rapids, in Sullivan's ambulance, but was dead upon arrival.

A freight train was approaching slowly from the south as the switch locomotive came to a stop following the crash. A blast sounded by the switch locomotive alerted Engineer Cornelius Van Buren, 306 Conantier, E.E., Grand Rapids, of the freight crew to stop his train to avoid hitting any occupants of the car that might fall upon the east tracks.

Austin Lemon, 2547 Central ave., Wyoming Park, who was at work at his gas station on the new M-51 route near the crossing, ran to the tracks when he heard the crash to signal the crew to stop, but the enginesmen already were aware of the accident.

Floyd Ames was rushed to Butterworth hospital at Grand Rapids by John Smith of Grandville and reports from the hospital Sunday night indicated that he might be the lone survivor of the crash, despite serious injuries to the head.

A probe into the crash, one of a number that have occurred at this crossing, was started late Sunday by H. C. Wolfe, Kent county coroner, aided by Deputy Sheriff Edward N. Jannenga, who was sent to the scene by Sheriff Byron Patterson. The coroner ordered the two enginesmen on the switch locomotive to report this morning at the office of Prosecutor Earl W. Munshaw of Kent county, before deciding whether the accident warrants an inquest.

The trainmen were testing a remade locomotive of the large "700" type, which had been repaired at the Wyoming yards shops. The railroad uses the stretch of track extending from the yards to Grandville for the test runs and the engine which hit the automobile had been observed passing several times during the morning. Witnesses said the whistle always was sounded at the crossing.

The Grandville road, comprising part of M-51, was rerouted last year and part of the pavement relaid in preparation for cutting out the crossing. A short stretch of road between it and Grandville remains to be completed and work on elimination of the crossing will be resumed within a few weeks.

Bodies of the accident victims were removed to the Lotan Hildreth mortuary at Grandville while members of the Ames family made plans for funeral services.

BUS TAKES FIRE EARLY ON MONDAY MORNING

One of the street buses of the Peoples garage took fire at 6:30 Monday morning and the quick arrival of the fire department saved the bus from destruction. E. Van Lente, the driver, was burned slightly, and his money bag containing some bills was destroyed. The bus will be repaired, for that is about the only damage that was done.

CONCERT TO BE GIVEN ON APRIL FIFTH

The concert to be given in Holland by Mr. Lance P. Latzari and Mr. Floyd B. Johnson, of the National Radio Chapel, Chicago, will be held in the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church on Tuesday evening, April 5. The concert was announced sometime ago but the place was not decided upon at that time.

It will be under the auspices of the young ladies' mission circle of the Maple Avenue Christian Reformed church and of the young men's society of the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church. Mr. Latzari and Mr. Johnson are both popular aides of Paul Rader and they have both appeared in Holland a number of times. The meeting will open at 7:45.

Descendants of the couple number 9 children, 24 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Gringhuis have resided in Zeeland for several years.

Quick action by Grand Rapids firemen Thursday night prevented destruction of bound files of The Grand Rapids Herald, which could not be replaced, when a blaze started in a waste paper basket in the business office on the first floor of The Her-old building spread to the files contained in a steel rack nearby. Firemen made a quick run from downtown stations and prevented serious damage.

PLAN TO RAISE $3,300 BEFORE JUNE FIRST

A drive has been started in Grace Episcopal church to raise $3,300 dollars in cash by June 1 for the purpose of wiping out the mortgage on the parish hall. The plan is to raise the money within the bounds of the congregation, the local Episcopal church never having asked the community in general for support. There have been some who have shown their willingness to the small congregation by making contributions and any such gifts will be gratefully received for this purpose.

When Father D. D. Douglas came to Holland three years ago there was a mortgage of $1,000 on the rectory. Since that time about $8,000 has been spent on remodeling the church and building the parish hall. At present there is a total church indebtedness of $6,300. The plan is to reduce that before June 1 by $3,300, leaving an even $3,000, which represents the mortgage remaining on the church and the rectory.

ALLEGAN FIRE CHIEF'S SON BADLY HURT IN CRASH

Henry Maentz, son of Fire Chief and Mrs. Henry O. Maentz of Allegan, suffered a fracture of the twelfth vertebra and is in a serious condition as the result of a head-on automobile crash between Ann Arbor and Detroit Saturday evening, according to word received at Allegan.

Maentz was returning to the University of Michigan from Detroit with a college friend, who was driving, when an eastbound car crashed into their automobile. The machine in which Maentz was riding was turned around and ditched.

ANOTHER FACTORY LEAGUE TO BE FORMED HERE

The success of the factory ball league in Holland of last summer will be repeated if those in charge of the affair last year can bring it about. Plans are on foot for another factory league that shall be even stronger than the one of last season.

The initial meeting of the managers of the various teams will be held on Thursday night of this week at 7:30 o'clock at the Van Tongeren Sport shop. All managers who expect to have teams in the league are requested to be present at that meeting. It is very important that all shall be there so that permanent plans can be made.

Last year's factory league was the most successful ever organized here and it is believed that this year there is just as good material for such an organization.

The annual ladies' night meeting of the Holland chapter of the Sons of the Revolution was held Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Brooks, East 12th street. Mr. Brooks was the speaker of the evening, reading a very informative paper on the subject, "Fathers of the Revolution." One of the interesting features of the paper was a character sketch of King George, showing how the private life of the English king had a bearing on the situation in America. Mrs. Phillips Brooks sang two songs, accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Brooks.

The following officers for the year were elected: regent, E. J. Jenckes; vice regent, Bruce Raymond; secretary, R. B. Champion; treasurer, C. H. Beach; color bearer, E. C. Brooks; historian, A. C. V. R. Gilmore.

The state society of the Sons of the Revolution practically has its headquarters in Holland and it has a library of some 150 volumes of valuable documents bearing on Colonial times. Many of these were donated by the late Dr. J. W. Beardslee, Sr., and they are at present housed in the Western Theological library. Because that institution is closed during several months, it was decided last night to see if the library could not be changed to the Hope college library where it would be more available to the members.

The president of the state society, C. H. McBride, gave the following message, which was read at the meeting Thursday night:

"Our new year begins with the birthday of George Washington, revered as the father of our country. In a patriotic society, this is a fitting parallel with the beginning of our Christian civilization, whose highest attributes of good citizenship are loyalty to home, to country and to God.

"Some men are passively patriotic, some are moved to emotional patriotism in the stress of war. However, in every nation of long established orderly government, there is a group whose loyalty is deep-rooted in family tradition.

"There is an intimacy which gives to patriotism the halo of worship at the family altar. It is an historical fact that this latter group is the stabilizing force, the very backbone of every enduring form of government.

"This is our heritage. Let us remember that ours is not alone a duty to guard the ashes of the past, but to keep alive those principles of self-government which have established this greatest republic of all time.

The foundation of the tannery industry was laid in Holland in this old plant and under the able management of the Cappon and the Bertsch families the business grew and flourished until it became the largest industry in the city, and the "Master of Bark" harness leather has a national reputation for quality. At the Philadelphia World's Fair in 1876 it took first premium.

The Cappon & Bertsch Leather company sold out in 1910 to the Armour Leather company and in 1921 the J. K. Mosser Leather Corporation took over the Armour Leather Com-

It is possible that it may be necessary to hold two meetings for Lance B. Latham and Floyd B. Johnson, the Paul Rader musicians who are to appear in Holland next Tuesday night. There is so much interest in the meeting that if the tickets go as well as is now expected it may be necessary to arrange a return engagement to give all an opportunity to hear these musicians.

Brouwers Garage, five miles north of Holland, was broken into sometime on Sunday night and a small quantity of candy and three inner tubes were stolen. Sheriff's officers Monday could locate little that would be of assistance in rounding up the marauders. The robbers broke in through a rear window. From the nature of the damages they were inexperienced boys.

So why not buy WIND-STORM INSURANCE as well as FIRE INSURANCE and be really protected?

Some folks here neglect this protection. This is a great mistake. We do not enjoy any natural protection because of our geographic location.

A wind storm may hit any place, any where and any time. Insurance is your best protection.

The average home in Holland can get very complete protection against these losses for about $5.00 or $6.00 per year.

For that matter, why not drop in and make sure that ALL of your PROPERTY Insurance is RIGHT?

Miss Martha Barkema will sing at the morning service of Sixty Reformed church next Sunday.

Allegan will turn its clocks ahead Saturday, April 9. Mayor Joseph F. Mosier announced Monday.

The Knights of Pythias party which was to have been held March 31, has been postponed to April 8. The Swedish church of Watson township, Allegan county, has entered into a contract with the Allegan Lumber Co. for erection of a parsonage adjoining the church.

George L. Clark of Lansing has resigned as receiver for the First National bank of Allegan and J. Garver Bly of Richmond, Ind., has been appointed in his place.

Miss Hazel Ende and Mr. Jacob Van Dyke were united in marriage Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. J. A. Roggen of Hamilton performed the ceremony.

Angeline Mae, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vande Brink, died at the home of the parents, Friday morning, March 28th.

Among the young men to enlist in the 1927 military training camp at Battle Creek is Donald Maynard Martin, Holland, son of Rev. and Mrs. Jas. M. Martin.

It is with great pleasure that the directors of the Woman's Literary club announce that on Wednesday, March 30, the merchants of Holland will put on a style show for the benefit of the club. It will be staged at the club house and will be open to the public from three to five in the afternoon and from 7:30 to 9:30 in the evening. The models will start showing the garments promptly at three in the afternoon and at seven-thirty in the evening. Following the showing refreshments will be served in the new basement tea-room which has just been remodelled in a most attractive manner.

Th merchants who have kindly consented to join in the displaying of good are the following: the French Clock Co., the Ross Clock Co., the K. & B. Hat shop, the Vogue Hat shop, the Allen Tot Shop, and the Knoolhuizen Shoppe. The P. S. Borer Co., the John J. Rutgers Co., and the Loker-Rutgers Co., will also be there. The Brierley Bakery, the "Just It," Federal and Banner bakeries have promised to send in goodies to eat, while our florist Henry Edelink will be there by proxy wishing the cause well with beautiful products from his hot house. To add to the entertainment, Meyers Music House will be represented through music furnished by one of their instruments. There will be a candy booth, conducted by Miss Ethel Dykstra, where homemade confectionaries may be purchased. Entertainment, music, eats! What more can fancy dictate and all for the small sum of 50c. There will be an exhibition clothes for the toddler and clothes for grandmother, as well as for Johnny, Jane, and father too. No one will be missed in the gamut of wearing apparel displayed. So bring your husbands, brothers and sweethearts. Come over one and all and see what our merchants have on hand to fit into your spring wardrobe. Incidentally you will be assisting one of Holland's worthwhile causes, the Woman's Literary club.

The club now has a membership of 250 representative women who have joined forces to foster interest in the best things of life, such as literature, history, art, music, citizenship, public health, education and numerous other things. In short, its aim is to lend its influence to every cause which makes for a better community, state and nation. In addition, it does much that can be concretely measured. Its scholarship fund has assisted twenty worthy young women through college. Its hospital committee has made all hospital supplies for that institution from the time of its founding, and this extension work will be carried on by Holland's newer and larger hospital. The civic health committee is doing much to help Ottawa county in the fight against tuberculosis along with many other things.

The club is unique in that it owns and operates a building which is used by many and varied organizations in exchange for a nominal fee. Daily it houses meetings of all kinds. Concerts, lectures, demonstrations, meetings of the W. C. T. U. and Business and Professional Women are held there. It furnishes a place of refinement where groups of young people meet for entertainment from time to time. Frequently it is the scene of weddings and it has once been used for a funeral. Church services have been held there, and it is often headquarters for conventions. A perusal of its schedule is most interesting and brings home the fact that it is truly a community center in which all Holland is interested. Recently about four thousand dollars has been expended in improvements to the building. The committees in charge of this work point with pride to the fact that practically every dollar of that amount went to buy Holland labor and Holland products. Come out Wednesday afternoon or evening or both. Review your acquaintance with the building. Greet your friends over the coffee cups, help the club and see the splendid and varied lives of merchandise which will be presented for your pleasure.

"The Hand of the Law," a tense, gripping drama, will be presented by members of the Beechwood P.T. club Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evening, April 5, 6th and 7th. The scenes are laid in an eastern village and the play abounds in tense moments, besides several humorous situations. Tickets can be secured at Kardux Grocery and the North Side Grocery.

Beechwood has become very popular for their home talent plays, and this one promises to be fully as good as those in the past.

A short circuit on the electric light lines leading from Grand Haven to Ferrysburg caused the light and power of that village to be off a good share of Sunday and the line crew of that city to spend a portion of their day locating the difficulty.

After a time it was found to be in one of the big submarine cables lying under the river and all power was transferred to the one phase cable and light for the evening hours the result.

The three and a half months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Norton died Monday evening. The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at two P.M. at the home of Mrs. Norton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Esenburgh, 11 West 10th St. All friends are invited.

The consistorial union, composed of the consistories of the reformed churches in the Holland classis met Monday afternoon at Second Reformed church in Zeeland. Ninety members were present.

Annual meeting of the Holland Game and Fish Protective association will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the city hall. Secretary Jake Lievensen announces that at that time the annual election is to be held and other important business is to be transacted, and members of this club are urged to attend.

Dollar Day in Holland Forty-five Years Ago

This is Dollar Day in Holland forty-five years ago, that is to say it was a day when the farmers came to sell to the city folks. This is an old-fashioned "Market Day" so-called long before there was a Holland fair. Then the farmer came to town with his produce and displayed his wares on the sidewalks. Cattle for sale were lined up and fastened to a long rope leading from one hitching post to another. No automobiles you will notice. The location on Eighth street in the picture shown here is as follows from left to right... Old Konningsburg hotel (now Vander Veen Block), meat market of Jacob Kuite, Sr., saloon of Peter Brown "Dekke Pete," Simon Sprietsma's shoe store, Holland City Bank (now Holland City State Bank), Vander Veen hardware, vacant lot now occupied by Buehler Meat Market, Vander Veen building just completed at that time, now the Corner Hardware

NEAL BALL IS TO MANAGE THE NEW HAVEN B. B. CLUB

Was Holland's Greatest Ball Player 25 Years Ago

Sport Editor of the Grand Rapids Herald Goes Into Baseball History

The following is written by Emerson Dickenson, sport writer for the Grand Rapids Herald:

"Neal Ball, who pitched and played an infield position for the Holland Independent some 25 years ago when they won the state independent championship, while managed by Con De Free, who since has become a millionaire through his successful operation of the DeFree Chemical company of Holland, will manage the New Haven club of the Eastern league this year. Neal's wife is a Holland girl. He often visits Grand Rapids and Holland.

"The New Haven manager enjoys the distinction of being one of the very few major league baseball players who ever made an unassisted triple play. He was with the New York Yankees and the Cleveland Indians for years, playing second base, following a few successful seasons in the minors as a member of the Cedar Rapids club of what was then the Central association.

"When Ball was with the Holland club he pitched here against a pick-off team of American league stars who toured the country. The big leaguers had to go 10 innings to win and did so on a fluke, a drive down third base line by Napoleon Lajoie turning into a home run through a high bound over the left field fence. The games then were played on the present site of Ramona park. The grandstand was located where the center field fence now is and faced north."

GOV., McEACHRON AND MARTIN ARE HIGHLY PRAISED

Old Age Pension Supported By the Ottawa Legislators

Announcement of This Fact Brings An Ovation At the Eagles Banquet

Rather an interesting side-light at the Eagles banquet, Friday night, that was not exactly on the program, was an announcement made by Past Grand Worthy President C. Henry Lemcke of Saginaw.

It appears that Lemcke has been at Lansing during practically the entire session of the legislature, fostering the Old Age pension bill and he at the banquet had considerable to say relative to the difficulties he encountered at the State Capital.

He called some legislators by name as being wishy-washy on this most important bill, and he was loud in his praises for others.

He stated that Fred McEachron representative from Ottawa county was whole heartedly for the bill fostered by the Eagles, and that Senator Martin from Muskegon and Ottawa county also went to the length in behalf of the bill.

When Ottawa counties man was mentioned, the Holland members of the Aerie arose and applauded vigorously.

When Martin from Muskegon was named, as being in favor of it, the large Muskegon delegation got on their feet. However Lemcke wasn't through yet.

Grand Rapids also had a large delegation present, and the man from Saginaw scored several representatives from there, stating that while a few were for the bill, some were constantly side-stepping. The result was that the Grand Rapids delegation was silent but nevertheless were determined to talk it over with their representatives.

Even Governor Green came in for praise from Lemcke who vigorously opposed the present governor at the primaries. The prominent Eagle stated that he thought he would have a hard time with the Governor, anyway, he thought he would make a try at it. He compiled documentary evidence on the Old Age pension bill that would keep the old folks in comfortable circumstances in their own humble little homes among their friends, rather than send them to a poor house among strangers, governed under discipline and over-seers, sometimes not too kindly.

He stated that he laid this evidence on the governors desk, expecting that this would be the last of it. To his surprise a few days later Mr. Green called him in and said: "If this bill passes both branches of the legislature, I will sign it and make it a law."

This announcement brought applause that lasted more than a minute.

Paul and Luke Rader, considered two of the greatest evangelists in America today, are coming to Holland for a three weeks stay to do evangelic work here.

The dates for their coming are from April 17 to May 4th at the armory, and men in all walks of life in Holland are fostering these meetings, and it took considerable persuasion on the part of businessmen and manufacturers to have the Rader brothers come to Holland, for their time is more than taken up at Chicago, Muskegon and elsewhere.

Paul Rader is head of the National Radio Chapel at Chicago, and the brothers are heard nearly every Sunday for at least 10 hours in various Gospel messages and musical programs over the air.

Paul Rader is also editor and publisher of the World Wide Christian Courier, having a tremendous circulation. He is also a religious song writer and the author of many religious books.

Luke Rader was the former pastor of the Baptist church at Atlanta, Georgia, however, now the brothers are associated in evangelical work, not alone in Chicago, but at their Lake Harbor retreat at Muskegon where a great part of the summer is spent.

Floyd B. Johnson, manager and announcer of WHT National Radio Chapel, will also be here during these sessions, and Clarence W. Jones, manager

Many Businessmen and Manufacturers Are Backing Up These Meetings

Dates Have Been Set For April 17 To May 4 At Armory

Paul and Luke Rader, considered two of the greatest evangelists in America today, are coming to Holland for a three weeks stay to do evangelic work here.

The dates for their coming are from April 17 to May 4th at the armory, and men in all walks of life in Holland are fostering these meetings, and it took considerable persuasion on the part of businessmen and manufacturers to have the Rader brothers come to Holland, for their time is more than taken up at Chicago, Muskegon and elsewhere.

Paul Rader is head of the National Radio Chapel at Chicago, and the brothers are heard nearly every Sunday for at least 10 hours in various Gospel messages and musical programs over the air.

Paul Rader is also editor and publisher of the World Wide Christian Courier, having a tremendous circulation. He is also a religious song writer and the author of many religious books.

Luke Rader was the former pastor of the Baptist church at Atlanta, Georgia, however, now the brothers are associated in evangelical work, not alone in Chicago, but at their Lake Harbor retreat at Muskegon where a great part of the summer is spent.

Floyd B. Johnson, manager and announcer of WHT National Radio Chapel, will also be here during these sessions, and Clarence W. Jones, manager on a large instrument in the Wrigley building, known as the Kilgen organ, considered the largest in the world, and is often heard over WHT, will also come to Holland during the Rader campaign here and take a part in this work.

Holland is looking forward to the coming of the Raders

Governor Fred Green Invites Government Fishermen Here

Gov. Green has done a splendid bit of work by inviting G. C. Leach, chief of the fish hatcheries of the Federal government, to make an inspection and report of the hatcheries of Michigan. Mr. Leach is not entirely unfamiliar with conditions in this state for he has said on other more to conserve fish life than many other states. He will visit the 17 hatcheries in operation in the attempt to uncover some means of increasing production and the establishment of extensive fingerling ponds for brook trout. Whatever may be the result of his inspection it is certain to help in focusing attention upon this most important branch of our conservation activities traffic.

LUKE RADER

of the Rader campaign, has already been in Holland making definite arrangements April 1st and 2nd of this week.

OTTAWA COUNTY MAN FOSTERS A PLANTING BILL

Connolly Measure Would Provide Future Supply Of Christmas Trees

Former Senator Informed That Bill Is Making Progress at Lansing

A modification of the bill aimed to prohibit commercial cutting of Christmas trees, together with the vandalism and stealing which accompanies it written by William M. Connolly of Spring Lake has been introduced by Senator A. J. Engel in the State Legislature and entitled Bill No. 253.

This bill would prohibit the sale, transporting or possessing of pine, spruce, hemlock, cedar and other evergreen trees taken in trespass and provides a penalty for violation. The bill was read a first and second time by its title, ordered printed and referred to the Committee Conservation.

Mr. Connolly has had word from members of the state conservation committee that for two years that board has been trying to draft a bill that would be workable, one that could be enforced as they have realized for some time that the wholesale slaughter of Christmas trees would have to be curtailed or entirely prohibited at some time.

This bill has stirred a wide interest among individuals, corporations and companies owning forests and has been the reason for planting thousands and thousands of trees this spring. The Consumers Power Co., realizing the need for trees near the small streams, has been carrying on a great campaign of tree planting.

The bill suggested by Mr. Connolly was prompted just after Christmas when the sight of thousands of these trees left on the market caught interest.

The original bill would require townships, villages and cities to cultivate evergreen trees to offset the denuding of the landscape which now takes place. It would require municipalities to purchase or lease adequate land for raising spruce, fir, pine or other evergreens to assure an annual production of trees equal to 10 percent of the population.

Several concerns are being organized for the purpose of raising trees for commercial purposes on the waste lands of the north and a great deal of interest has been awakened through publicity given to this bill and the interest with which it was received in the Senate.

HOLLAND BUILD- ING ACTIVITY IS BEGUN

LARGER PROJECTS OF CITY WILL COST $500,000; MANY HOUSES PLANNED.

Building conditions continue good. Many new houses are nearing completion and permits for many others are being issued.

The larger projects involve an expenditure of about $500,000. These include the new Washington school, which is nearly finished; the new municipal hospital and the city mission, which are under way, and the new home of the Peoples State bank, work on which soon will be started.

A row of five one-story brick buildings is being projected in the southwest section, to be used as business places. Several garages are being erected in various parts of the city. Several homes will be built along the park road in some of the platted sections near the south shore resorts.

Street paving projects will be started within a few weeks and work on the parkway in the new state park at Ottawa Beach also will be started soon. New stretches of roads will be built and much other work will be accomplished.

EYEWITNESS OF LINCOLN ASSASSINATION SOON EIGHTY-EIGHT

Peter Gunst, Civil war veteran, celebrated the eighty-eighth anniversary of his birth Monday. He was 22 years of age when he enlisted, after coaxing to get in, and served four years and four months. He served under McClellan, Pope, Burnside, McDowell and other generals, was thrice wounded, twice in one day.

Gunst frequently met President Lincoln and was a witness of his assassination in Ford Theatre, Washington, D. C.

Gunst has been a cripple since he was injured in two automobile accidents on the same corner within two weeks a few years ago.

He Doesn't Call Now

The thirty young man often called on a certain girl, but had never taken her to a theater, or movie, or even out to tea.

The family had noticed and often commented on what they termed his "stinginess," and all before the girl's ten-year-old brother.

One chilly night the youngster was in the drawing room when the thirty young man was present. The caller, who was sitting close to the fire, said suddenly:

"Oh, how I love to sit before your fire and think, think—"

Like a flash came an interruption from the ten-year-old:

"Think—think of how you are saving money by sitting here."

DUTCH QUEEN IS LOVER OF SKATING

WILHELMINA TAKES RARE DE-
LIGHT IN WINTER
SPORTS.

Queen Wilhelmina, of the Netherlands although the monarch of some 56,399,932 persons, and much restricted by duties of statecraft in connection with her empire, still finds time to engage in her favorite pastimes of sleighing and skating.

She is one of the most democratic members of the House of Orange and has frequently been seen skating on mill ponds and canals in what some aristocrats might term very plebeian surroundings.

Watches Water Sports.

Her majesty is fond of watching water sports such as rowing, swimming or yachting, which is not surprising in a sovereign whose country is one fourth under water.

She likes to take pictures so well that amateur photography is a hobby with her. She likes walking and goes for long hikes on her summer holidays. One of her greatest enjoyments is to slip away from regal duties and go sledding in her gaily decorated, horse-drawn sleigh with two uniformed footmen at the back.

When Queen Wilhelmina was for Dutch girls had not yet come into their own. The maidens of those days were just supposed to sit and sew, or go for sedate walks or drives. But now as soon as Jack Frost closes up the 2,000 miles of Dutch canals and waterways, males and females talk about nothing but the condition of the ice. Skating is indulged in day and night, as long as the ice is firm.

Like other Dutch children, Queen Wilhelmina mastered the art of skating at an early age, and without being a brilliant performer, she is still able to get up a fair speed, and makes the most of the opportunities offered by the fashionable Hague Ice club's course.

REWARD OFFERED IN GRAND RAPIDS FOR BROKEN GLASS

Grand Rapids offers $5 reward to persons not employed by the city who cause the arrest and conviction of persons leaving broken glass on pavements, Safety Director James Sinke announced. At the same time all city employees were asked to be on the alert.

Value of Courtesy

Courtesy is the one medium of exchange that is always accepted at par by the people of every country on the globe. Courtesy radiates a spirit of good feeling and suggests that we are not working entirely for material returns of work, but for the friendly human associations as well. Life is not too short, and we are never too busy to be courteous.

Courtesy is the outward expression and an inward consideration for others is always an effectual lubricant that smooths business and social relationships, eliminating friction.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

GRAND HAVEN DOING SOMETHING FOR ITS GAME

STATE MAY HAVE DUCK REFUGE IN MARSHES AT GRAND HAVEN

Grand Haven sportsmen are really doing something when it comes to game planting fish and game conservation and so on.

Repeatedly game fish have been wanted in the streams in that vicinity, in fact, thousand upon thousands of them.

Restocking the woods with rabbits is already going on and now the state may do still more for our sister city.

Marshes at the mouth of Grand river above Grand Haven may be surveyed by state experts in the near future as the probable location of a wild fowl refuge and public shooting ground.

For some time western Michigan sportsmen have contended that the marshes of the Grand deserve state consideration. Overshooting and gradual depletion of vegetable growth have damaged these once famous grounds, until in recent years it has been difficult for hunters to obtain good shooting at any time during an open season. What seems to be needed is the designation of certain areas in which the ducks, coot, etc., can feed without being disturbed. Under present conditions the moment a duck sets its wings to drop into this marsh it becomes a target for many hunters. What is needed is a closed area in which the fowl can feed and rest. From such a refuge they will wing into the surrounding marsh, assuring continuous good shooting throughout the season.

No definite action on the Grand Haven marsh has been taken, but William H. Loutit, member of the conservation commission from Grand Haven has promised that he will bring the matter before the commission and ask that P. F. Lovejoy, head of the game refuge department, or some other competent expert, be assigned to survey the lower Grand with an eye to designating a refuge area shooting grounds and to planting aquatic plants suitable for duck food.

Joseph Conrad's Baby

Joseph Conrad, the famous writer of sea tales, wrote a letter to a cousin January 21, 1898, three days after the birth of a son. The letter is included in a group of Conrad's letters published by World's Work. "The doctor says it is a magnificent boy," he wrote. "He has dark hair, huge eyes, and he resembles a monkey. What pains me is that my wife pretends that he also resembles me. Enfin! Do not draw too hasty conclusions from this astonishing concurrence of circumstances. My wife is certainly mistaken."

ALLEGAN REPORT REVEALS PROGRESS

BONDED INDEBTEDNESS OF CITY CUT $5,000 IN YEAR;
WOULD CURB SPEEDING.

The annual report for the city of Allegan, adopted at the council meeting in that city showed a balance on hand in all funds for the fiscal year ending March 10 to be $23,039.09. In 1926 the balance was $19,947.42.

The Griswold Memorial fund, this year is $150,067.74, while in 1926 it was $142,901.39. The cemetery perpetual care fund in 1927 was $19,542.78, compared with $15,649.96 in 1926 and $13,825.64 in 1925. This money is invested in bonds.

The bonded indebtedness of the city is reported at $44,000, a decrease of $5,000 since the last report.

The police and license committee of the council was instructed to confer with city justices to seek heavier fines on speeding motorists. Heretofore only minimum fines of from $1 to $3 have been imposed.

The city engineer was instructed to prepare plans and specifications for a 24-foot pavement from the top of Stanley hill to Pine-st. on Cutler-st. and Trowbridge-st. The sewers in Park-av. were ordered completed preparatory to paving.

The following election boards were named for the annual city election in April: First ward, inspectors, Perle F. Fouch, M. H. Mutchler and John Etegan; clerks, Dean Ferris, Glenn Gordon and Ralph LeBlanc. Second ward, inspectors, Orson Coburn, William Legner and Stewart Agan; clerks, Clare McOmber and Swan Sequist. Third ward, inspectors, Chalmers Monteth, Mrs. Mabel Schumann and Ernest Dalman; clerks, Herbert Elliott and Harry Hudson.

Ingredients for Jelly

Scientific study of the principles of jelly making has shown that three ingredients are required for the formation of a jelly, namely, sugar, acid and pectin; and these must be present in fairly definite proportions. Tart apples, cranberries, red currants and grapes, when collected at the proper stage of ripeness, contain pectin and acid in sufficient quantity to form a good jelly when cooked for a short time with the proper amount of sugar.

SPOONING IS NOW REGULAR IN WISCONSIN

RACINE WIS. POLICE CHIEF
DRAFTS CODE COVERING THE
"CANS" AND "CANNOTS"

Spooning is perfectly proper in Racine, Wis., according to chief of police H. C. Baker, and love making couples will not be molested by police, as long as they live up to the rules for the proper conduct of "necking" parties.

Lovers may wander about arm in arm, or even occupy park benches, the rules state. They must, however, remain within the bounds of propriety.

They may even do their spooning in parked cars, subject, of course, to scrutiny of police officers whenever found, to see if they are within the age limit set down by the police.

This limit is a "mature age." It is understood that "mature" means over 16, Chief Baker declares that last summer, police had considerable trouble with couples under that age parking until the wee small hours of the morning. The rule against parking, if the spooners are under that age, will be strictly enforced, the chief states.

Innocent spooning always has been more or less tolerated, Chief Baker declared. Under the new rule it will be tolerated, up to midnight. The stroke of twelve is the deadline, however.

There is one thing, however, that the police are strictly against, and that is one armed driving.

One arm around a girl is all right, police feel, as long as it is the right girl, the right place, the right time and everybody concerned willing.

The time and place, however, are not in a moving car, unless the couple is in the back seat. No mercy will be shown anyone driving, while one arm encircles the waist of a companion.

The word "propriety" in the rules, is very flexible. There cannot be set any fast rules outlining what constitutes propriety, so the chief is leaving that question up to the individual officers. If they think everything is nice, and calm, and as it should be—well, everyone has a right to steal a kiss in the dark.

TOO MUCH FISH PROHIBITION SAYS SPORT WRITER

"The season on ice fishing is over for inland waters. It meant very little to the fishermen south of Town 20, for, guided by some peculiar whim, the former prohibition commission cut off their sport with the boys on one ice line while held in the hand. Very few participated in this restricted pleasure and you can't blame them. When five ice lines equipped with 'tie-up' were permissible the fishermen could cut holes, set his lines and skate from one to the other and then warm up some more by going back to shore to start his fire. The elimination of the spear may have saved some fish, but it certainly put a crimp into an ice shanty enjoyed by tens of thousands. The prohibition commission cut off the sport, which allowed over one-half of the population of the state to spear and use five lines and took this privilege away from the other half. Either it should be state-wide or rescinded. In southern Michigan ice fishing has always been considered a legitimate sport and it should remain so."

Defined Waistline and Yokes Important in Lingerie Modes

By JULIA BOTTOMLEY

WHAT a feeling of serene satisfaction there is in the consciousness of a reserve supply of extra choice lingerie reposing amidst sachets of sweetest fragrance in one's chiffon dresser drawer in readiness for special "occasions."

Right joyfully may any young girl accept an invitation to the dance, who knows that her wardrobe is stocked with all lovely essentials attributing to dainty dress. Of course a diaphanous chiffon or a billowy tulle or a shimmering tulle frock is going to look its enchantment the more if it be worn over an adorable lingerie "dance set" such as this picture shows.

Not a style point or a beauty detail is lacking in this exquisite creation of supple crepe-satin whose fluttering ribbons and sheer lace so add to its charm. Even a cunning little lace pocket is there and a modish lace yoke.

Very important is the fact that unlike the straight unbroken lines of the regulation costume slip this garment which takes its place indicates a definite waistline. Please to observe also that the wide filmy lace which flounces it is finely plaited. Furthermore, the crepe satin itself is plaited, this being a characteristic feature of the latest French lingerie imports.

There remains yet another "beauty secret" to disclose in regard to this entrancing bit of lingerie, and that has to do with its color which is pale yellow. To be sure it might just as well be peach or flesh pink, or rose shade, hyacinth or light blue, or even orchid, for each is fashionable—but yellow is the "latest" so reads the most recent style message.

As to night robes, they are trending to shorter lengths and to more frilly feminine effects. For these indestructible velle are a favored material and they are lavishly trimmed with lace, interesting necklines and lace yokes mark their styling.

young, he notes that deer lose all fear of man. Another trait he mentions is that does and their fawns will walk in a circle around him as if proud to show him what cute things their young are. Blow a whistle and the entire herd will come to him on a jump, knowing that he is going to give them something unusually appetizing to eat.

Mail Patrons Must Keep Mail Box in Good Condition

In case patrons of the Holland post-office neglect to keep receptacles for mail in proper condition carrier delivery may be discontinued to such patrons, according to postmaster E. C. Westover. Instructions have been received from Washington to that effect.

In some instances, according to Mr. Westover mail boxes become rusted and torn or bent and in such cases the carrier is not required to make delivery. This is more prevalent in the country than in the city, but on the whole, Holland patrons keep their mail boxes in excellent condition.

OWNERS ARE AIDED BY CLEAN PLATES

CIVIC DUTY OF MOTORISTS TO KEEP TAGS READABLE, SAYS
AUTO CLUB OFFICIAL

It is the civic duty of all motorists to keep their license plates clean and easily readable at a hasty glance. "Few motorists realize that when their tags are extremely dirty and difficult to decipher that if their cars are stolen the dirty tags reduce their chances of recovery by a considerable amount," Fred H. Caley secretary of the Cleveland Automobile club said. "When a car is stolen and it is reported to a police station the license number is the greatest aid toward the recovery. The policeman standing at a traffic intersection and the officer patrolling a beat have lists of the numbers of stolen cars."

"These numbers are memorized as much as possible. If the tags are muddy and the figures obliterated or unreadable the officer is unable to determine if the car is stolen. The car goes by him speedily and is gone before he can make sure."

"If the car has license tags on it that have been reported stolen then the officer can follow in another car and arrest the driver, but few officers will follow a car which they are not reasonably certain has been stolen."

Motorists should attach their tags in a fashion that tail lights, bumpers, cranks, spare tires and other accessories do not obstruct the view of the license.

HOLLAND REMAINS ENEMY TO RUSSIA

DUTCH AND RUSSIAN TRADE RE-LATION BECOMING MORE IMPORTANT

The Dutch government obstinately declines to recognize the soviet Russian republic, though Dutch and Russian trade relations are becoming daily more important. The great obstacles to the further development of these relations is the Dutch industrialists' fear of granting long term credits to Russia, while Dutch industry rarely makes use of the opportunity to obtain the 40 per cent government guaranty for the granting of export credits. Recently the Dutch industrial council discussed the question in a special meeting and the opinion was expressed that the 40 per cent government guaranty being absolutely inadequate, it should be increased to 60 per cent, as was done with the Dutch banks which granted credits to German industry. Dutch banking capital certainly would then become available for Dutch exports to Russia. A commission was appointed to make investigations among the various industries in order to decide whether or not a modification of the government guaranty system would be desirable.

CAN RE-STOCK STATE WITH RABBIT BITS STATE SAYS

COTTON TAILS NOT AVAILABLE SAYS THE CONSERVATION COMMISSION

The possibilities of distributing rabbits throughout the southern counties of Michigan is not feasible at the present time, according to George A. Hogart, secretary of the Michigan Conservation Commission. At a meeting of the Conservation Commission held recently a measure approving this was passed. Lee J. Smith, member of the commission, backed the measure.

The reason for not being able to carry out the step at the present time, is that there are no rabbits available that are considered good enough for use in this state. The commission has raked over about every available source and in almost every instance has found the rabbits offered for sale to be diseased or of a dwarfed variety.

As soon as a good supply of the cottontails can be found there is every reason to believe the planting will begin, according to Hogart. At present correspondence is being exchanged with the Pennsylvania Conservation Commission on the matter. Pennsylvania has been especially successful in planting rabbits and the Michigan department wishes to find out where the Quaker State obtained its supply of rabbits.

The proposed action on the part of the Michigan department has been called everywhere by sportsmen as a wise one.

Grand Haven Waltons started out on their own hook to stock northern Michigan, planting rabbits shipped to them from Texas and other western states.

PLAN FLOWER GARDEN IN BUSINESS DISTRICT

Flower beds can be found almost anywhere in the blooming season, but a most unusual spot has been laid out here for a large garden which will catch the eye of persons while shopping.

The place selected is a vacant lot, right in the heart of the business district, near the corner of Eighth-st. and College-av. The lot formerly was hidden from view by a billboard. This now has been moved, the ground plowed and long before the summer season rolls around, the lot will be transformed into a veritable flower bed under the care of one of Holland's nurseries.

Rattlesnake's Rings

The rings on a rattlesnake do not tell exactly the age of the snake. The biological survey says that the rattlesnake acquires from two to four rings a year, usually three. Under normal conditions one ring is added each time the snake sheds its skin. The young rattler is provided with a single button at birth, and within a few days it sheds its skin and commences feeding. In about two months it sheds its skin for the second time and then the first ring of the rattle is uncovered or added. This has been growing under the old skin, and its pressure is apparent in the swollen appearance of the tail at the base of the original button. The last seven or eight vertebrae fuse together shortly after birth and form a composite bone known as the "shaker" and it is around this bone that each up or ring of the rattle forms.

OCTOBER WORST MONTH FOR CAR STEALING

October is the greatest month for car thefts, insurance underwriters point out. The reason, they say, is the approach of winter and the unwillingness of car owners, especially those owning open cars, to be troubled with them over the cold spell. These encourage thefts of their cars, to save trouble and expense of winter driving or storage.

Gas Power Analyzed

A gas company has figured out that 1,000 cubic feet of gas will cook 18 meals for 6 persons; heat shaving water for 1,000 days; roast sufficient coffee to make 2 cups daily for 70 years; light 2 cigars a day for 500 years; boil 275 gallons of water; bake 1,700 1/2-pound loaves of bread in a continuous oven; do the work of two hens in hatching eggs; broil 7 3-pound steaks; barbecue enough ham to make 1,750 sandwiches.

Cave Supplied Saltpeter

Much of the powder used in the War of 1812 contained saltpeter taken from the Mammoth cave, Kentucky. Wheel tracks of ox-drawn vehicles are still plainly visible in the cave, says the Dearborn Independent.

Very Open

A man had invited a business acquaintance to play a round of golf with him. The guest, who was a very pompous individual, was also a poor player and backed up the turf with each stroke.

After he had carried away an unusually generous portion with his iron he turned to his host and said: "You know, I don't care particularly for the game, but I like the glorious open country hereabouts."

"Ah, quite," replied the other, as he surveyed the scarred ground, "but do you mind closing up the open country as we go along?"

HORSE SKELETON LEADS WOMAN TO BIG FORTUNE

Prospecting for clay sounds like a dull occupation, but when the scene is the wild sections of the Canadian northwest and the prospector a young woman who would enhance the beauty of any landscape, it becomes anything but dull.

For five years Helen Midland, a delegate to the convention of the American Ceramic society, in session here, combed the region made famous by the Canadian Mounted police searching for what ceramic engineers called a mirage. But eventually she found it—a deposit of ball clay from which chinaware and pottery of the finest texture and most exquisite coloring can be made.

Early Training Invaluable
Her biography reads like a romance. Born on a ranch in Canada, she learned to ride and to use firearms at an early age. This experience was invaluable to her during the years she spent as a prospector, often sleeping in mountain caves, or under blankets on the open plains, scores of miles from the nearest habitation.

She began her explorations soon after the World war. She had been importing chinaware from France, and had established an extensive business in Chicago, but a German submarine sent to the bottom of the Atlantic a ship carrying her entire imports in which practically her entire fortune was invested. She was forced out of the business she had built up, and turned to painting china, an art in which she is as proficient as in prospecting.

While engaged in this occupation, a German scientist suggested to her the possibility that ball clay deposits existed in the Canadian northwest. The idea of turning prospector appealed to her immensely. But almost everyone she consulted tried to discourage her. Ceramic experts scoffed at the idea. They said it couldn't be done by a woman—that she would face dangers that would try the nerve of a sou-dough.

Started on Expedition.
But she wasn't discouraged. She knew the science of ceramics from the bottom up, and further that ball clay was a scarce article. She returned to the home of her parents in Saskatchewan, and the next summer started out on horseback, carrying a supply of condensed foods, rifle and cartridges and prospector's tools. She covered nearly 1,000 miles during the summer, and brought back with her in the fall hundreds of samples of clay from different pits. In the winter, she tested these in an experimental kiln, but every sample baked black or brown. Had she found what she wanted it would have turned white when subjected to intense heat.

The next four years brought no better results. Then one day, near the close of the fifth summer, when she was on the way home, she saw something which greatly excited her curiosity. It was the skeleton of a horse standing upright on the edge of a wide plateau.

"It was a mile away, and I didn't intend to do any more prospecting that year," she said, "but my curiosity was excited by the sight of a skeleton in such a position. I knew that the country was infested with coyotes and wolves that would tear a carcass to pieces. I rode down the mountain and alighting from my horse made my way to the skeleton. I found the skeleton undermined by water. The horse's feet had gone through the surface shell, imprisoning it. Other animals apparently had been too wise to approach it, and it had remained there in an upright position, probably for many years, forming a rather startling and gruesome statue in that wild country."

Find Rich Deposit
"A deep ravine cut through the plateau near the horse and I say that the soil was clay. I took a sample. You can imagine my delight when a few months later, in making my tests, this came out of the fire a pure white. I went back as soon as the snow disappeared the next spring, and traced the deposit. It covers nearly 140 acres, and will yield several million tons."

Mrs. Midland is working the mine and shipping the product to various manufacturers in Canada and the United States. Her room at the Book-Cadillac hotel is a miniature museum, containing a great variety of clay objects which she has made, and expressive of modern ceramic art.

This skeleton cover, only a few of the high lights in her career—a career which has won her recognition throughout the world as one of the outstanding figures in a field until recently monopolized exclusively by men.

Herbert Baker of Allegan has received a referee's license from the Michigan Athletic Board of Control. Baker has always been interested in all kinds of sport, having devoted considerable time to the boxing game in the last few years. This is quite a recognition for both Baker and the city of Allegan, as it is seldom that a town the size of Allegan provides a man with the proper qualifications and interest enough in the game to merit such appointment.

MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE TELLS OF SUGAR BEETS

BEETS RAISED ON FALL PLOWED
GROUND AVERAGE MORE PER ACRE

That the time and depth of plowing have a marked influence upon the tonnage of beets produced per acre is indicated by experiments which have been conducted by the farm crops department of the Michigan State college.

Beets which have been planted on fall plowed ground have averaged a production of a ton an acre more than beets grown under similar conditions, except that the ground upon which they were planted was plowed in the spring.

The depth of plowing also has a great influence upon the tonnage of beets produced. The trials showed that each two inches added to the depth of plowing increased the yield approximately one ton per acre. Ground plowed six inches deep yielded one ton an acre more than ground plowed four inches deep.

Eight inches of depth in plowing gave a crop one ton heavier than was obtained from a six inch depth of plowing, and two tons heavier than the yield obtained on a four inch depth of furrow. Ground plowed 10 inches deep yielded one ton of beets more than the ground where the depth of plowing was eight inches.

Growers of sugar beets are assured at planting time of the price which they will receive for their crop. It is pointed out by the M. S. C. men. Any increase in tonnage of beets adds to the profits which the grower will realize on the crop ground which cannot be fall-plowed should be plowed early in the spring, and as deeply as possible without turning up the sub-soil.

BIRDS ARE NOT DYING OFF

Stories about partridge dying by the thousands in the upper peninsula are considered false by George R. Hogart, secretary of the Michigan Conservation Commission. Hogart declares that the condition is only local in certain localities inasmuch as there has been no general information concerning the death of the birds coming in to him from the state wardens in the upper peninsula. The stories declared the birds were dying from intense cold.

ALLEGAN TWINS RESEMBLES THEIR MOTHER

TWO CHUBBY LADS ALWAYS STAND BY EACH OTHER

Two chubby little lads of rugged physique and cheery disposition are the twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil P. Michaels, the former a city mail carrier here and a World war veteran. The boys are Bernard and Berneth, born Jan. 4, 1921. Both of them have blue eyes, their height is within one-half inch of each other's and no more than four pounds ever separates them in weight.

The parents dress the youngsters alike, both taking 12-year-old sizes. The boys started kindergarten only last March and now are in the first grade. One always stands by the other in case of any kind of predicament.

Naturally it is difficult to determine their respective identities when they are separated. The boys resemble their mother. —Grand Rapids Press.

STOLE WATERMELON 60 YEARS AGO, SENDS DOLLAR IN PAYMENT

Conscience is a persistent thing. Mrs. Joseph G. Glascock of Veederburg, Ind., received a dollar from a person living in Illinois in payment for half a watermelon stolen from her father's farm 60 years ago.

Accompanying the dollar was a letter which stated that the writer, then 13 years old, and a companion, age 18, now dead, stole the melon from the patch of Henry Cade, father of Mrs. Glascock.

"I am on my way to heaven," the writer continued, "and on my way ran up against that melon. It got so large I could not get over it. Forgive and forget is the prayer of your humble servant. Luke XIX 1-10."

LENGTH OF FISH TIP OF NOSE TO THE FORK OF THE TAIL

DURING the recent conference held in the interest of commercial fishing in the Great Lakes, at Lansing, it was definitely decided that all fish taken from these waters calling for a length limit must be measured from the tip of the nose to the fork of the tail.

Heretofore this has been from the tip of the nose to the tip of the tail and the change will cause many fish that were once considered of legal length to be returned.

When the question was put to Director Young upon how this ruling would be applied to our sport fish he stated that no decision had been reached on this matter and its importance would be carefully weighed.

Great Men's Passion for Odd Collections

When Whistler was hard pressed for money, he took many of his etchings to the pawnbroker to obtain the wherewithal to buy wine or rare Nankin china, being a connoisseur of the former and a collector of the latter.

Rosetti devoted himself to old furniture and Japanese bric-a-brac with the passion of a true collector. Unlike Whistler, however, he knew how to hang on to money and drove a hard bargain. His house was a combined museum and menagerie where raccoons, armadillos, salamanders and chameleons rummaged amongst rare manuscripts, books, pictures, musical instruments and furniture.

The raccoon was finally disposed of after he had nibbled up some of the poet's manuscripts, and a zebra which in the end proved dangerous met the same fate. There is, however, no accounting for tastes; and the collector who specialized in nooses which had performed their duty and to which he attached the names of their former tenants, possessed, if not a more peculiar, certainly a more morbid taste than Rosetti.—Market for Exchange.

Candlestick a Symbol

Albert Churchward, in his "Signs and Symbols of Primordial Man," says: "The seven candlesticks, with lighted candles, we have no doubt, were introduced by Moses as a representative type of the 'Seven Glorious Ones'—that is, the seven stars of the Little Bear originally in Stellar Mythos. We have at the present time the same in use amongst the Christian churches, representing the mystic seven, which are the prototypes of the Seven Glorious Ones."

LATE TOMATO WINS IN RACE FOR PROFIT

EARLY STUNTED CROP FALLS DOWN WHEN PRICES ARE HIGH

A stunted tomato plant may produce more tomatoes in the season than one that has not been retarded but it will not return the grower as much profit as a plant which is forced to early maturity. Dr. John W. Crist, greenhouse specialist at Michigan State college, at East Lansing, has found in a recent experiment.

Two lots of tomato plants of the same variety were tested. One batch of seed was planted Nov. 5, and the growth of the plants was retarded in the greenhouses until transplanted to the permanent beds on March 18. The rest of the seeds were planted Jan. 20 and the growth of the plants was never retarded. These were transplanted to permanent beds on March 20.

The first ripe tomatoes were picked from the plants started Nov. 5, yet the returns from the first five pickings from the plants started Jan. 20 were about double the yield from the early plants. This fruit was produced at a time when tomatoes were selling at $3 a basket.

WARDENS SAY CLOSED SEASON BOON TO BIRDS

INDICATIONS THAT PARTRIDGES PROFITED BY 1926 RULING IN DAILY REPORTS

Indications profited in the upper peninsula profited by the 1926 closed season in that district are found in daily reports received by the Department of Conservation from its game wardens.

Decrease in partridge throughout the state, particularly in the upper peninsula, caused the conservation commission last year to order a closed season in the district north of the straits. It was hoped the action would give the birds a chance to stage a comeback.

The action accomplished its purpose, in a measure, it is believed, as game wardens in the field are making daily reports on flocks. The birds seem to be healthy and are finding plenty of food, the wardens say.

Deer also are in good condition and are weathering well, according to Edward J. Ducas, warden at Gwin. Marquette county. He reports finding yards where from 15 to 100 deer are wintering.

Ducas says beaver dams are plentiful in his district, with the houses running from five to 10 animals. The trapping season opens February 1, but wardens say the yearly slaughter for pelts will not endanger the future.

STATES WILL COMPEL FISH LADDERERS AT DAMS

METZELAAR WILL SURVEY THE STATE'S OBSOLETE DAMS

A survey of dams in Michigan streams will soon be undertaken by the department of conservation under the direct supervision of Dr. Jan Metzelaar, state fish expert. According to Metzelaar there are many dams which were formerly used, but which are now abandoned, which have become fish barriers, since no one is providing ladders so that the fish may pass upstream. At present the department has information only on dams which are operated and pay taxes, but there are many dams, especially in the upper peninsula, on which no information is available. The survey conducted by Metzelaar will map the height of the dams, the degree of obstruction to passage of fish and such other information which is closely related to the fish planting program.

WHO KNOWS, HOLLAND MAY HAVE SOME DEER

RESORTERS MAY SOON SEE THE KING OF MICHIGAN WOODS AT LARGE

Wild deer may roam Ottawa county within a few months. And the same applies to other counties in which there is sufficient cover, as in Southern Ottawa around Waukazoo, West Olive and other places where there is sufficient shelter to harbor the shy white tails.

Action to this end was taken last week by the Conservation Commission when it adopted a recommendation of Commissioner James Oliver Curwood, as follows:

"Take action immediately for the beginning of a campaign which will populate every county in the state with deer, not for killing purposes in the southern counties, but as a move which will not only be tremendously educational in its result, but which will give pleasure to millions and open the eyes of all the nation to Michigan as a tourists' paradise. That this can be easily and inexpensively accomplished within a very short period of time is proved by the results at Deer Lake, 10 miles from Howell. Three does and two bucks were introduced there six years ago, and this herd has now increased to 24 does and bucks. During these six years only one out of the herd has been shot by a poacher. Only one buck is necessary in each county group, and both bucks and does may be easily secured from Cleveland Cliffs park on Grand Island. The department should get in touch with a view to utilizing the surplus stock this winter. Grand Island is equipped with feed traps permitting the easy capture of the deer. Pen traps can also be installed on Isle Royale."

Mr. Curwood's plan is that these deer will be turned loose to live on wild lands under wild conditions, and not in parks.

Eastern Girl Shows the West

46,277 OF THE 773,746 WORDS IN THE BIBLE ARE "AND"

The word "and" occurs 46,277 times in the Bible, in which a total of 773,746 words are used. These words are made up of 3,566,480 letters and they are grouped into 31,173 verses, 1,189 chapters and 66 books. It is set forth in a communication from Sydney L. Winstanley, 10901 Gratiot ave., Grand Rapids. The word "and" is found 1,855 times. The middle verse of the Bible is the eighth verse of the thirty-fifth verse of the eleventh chapter of St. John. There are no words or names of more than six syllables.

WANT SEVEN FLOWERS PROTECTED

Botanists connected with our State universities are anxious that the proposed law protecting certain species of wild flowers will become effective before the spring blossoming season is over. The measure seeks the protection of seven native species and prohibits the picking, transplanting or sale of any of them at any time of year. The plants covered by the provisions are the trailing arbutus, bitter-sweet, wild holly, pink lady slipper, fringed gentian, Christmas fern and trillium; the last named being one of our commonest wild flowers.

It was her first view of a cotton plantation with the plants all in full bloom, the endless fields of white causing her no end of wonderment. They stood spellbound at the spectacle until the young lady broke the silence by remarking: "What a wonderful crop of powder puffs! It's the first time I've seen them actually growing!"

STEVENS ART OBJECTS GIFT TO UNIVERSITY

LATE ATTORNEY HAD MANY FRIENDS IN HOLLAND

Collection Total 1200 Pieces And Is Valued at $30,000.

Friends of Fred Stevens in Holland will be interested to know that his large collection of Chinese curios have been given to U of M. Mr. Stevens was a frequent visitor here and when he delivered his last address in Holland before a joint meeting of the Holland Exchange and Rotary clubs he spoke on China where he and Mrs. Stevens have spent about four years. It appears now that they had collected many curios during their stay there and after the death of Mr. Stevens, head of the Michigan Trust company, it was the wish of Mrs. Stevens that the collection be given to the college where he graduated as an attorney.

The Grand Rapids Herald in a recent issue tells what the collection contains. The Herald states as follows:

"The Frederick Stevens oriental collection, gift of the late Frederick W. Stevens and Mrs. Stevens to the University of Michigan, is featured in a recent number of The Michigan Alumnus."

"There are approximately 1,200 different objects in the collection, which has been appraised at a value of about $30,000."

"Every form of Chinese except architecture is represented. The collection is to be known as 'The Frederick W. Stevens and Nellie Handshaw Stevens Oriental Collection.'"

"The collection, the author of the study of the collection in the Alumnus, declares is 'a cross section of the culture of the Orient.' The collection was accumulated during the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Stevens in Peking with no conscious intention of making a 'collection' in the formal sense."

"On all sides of them," writes Mr. Cuthe, "in the streets, in the religious and governmental centers, in the homes of both their oriental and occidental friends, they encountered strange customs and stranger things. Since the days in Peking formed a never-to-be-forgotten episode in their lives, they desired to bring back with them a part of those days for future contemplation."

"After waiting until the newness had worn off and until the customs and materials had matured, they began to purchase various objects which would serve as pegs upon which to hang their Peking memories. Into the markets and fairs, up strange highways and byways, among bizarre and wonderful sights, sounds and smells, they threaded their way, and after long bargainings, in typical oriental fashion, gathered those things which most appealed to them. Frequently itinerant traders, with their packs upon their backs, came to their house and spread their wares upon the floor for inspection. While the servants acted as interpreters the goods were looked over and talked over, and bargained for. Although they had accumulated only those things which pleased them, without any conscious intention of forming a "collection," the writer continues, "It became apparent when the material was unpacked that a comprehensive and instructive collection had been obtained. Realizing the necessity of preserving these things and the responsibility this entailed, they felt it best to place the major part of their possessions in the hands of an organization which could properly care for it. And therefore the University of Michigan has become the guardian of this synthesis of the art and culture of one section of the Far East."

45 STATES ADOPT GAS TAX IDEA

Gasoline tax has been adopted by forty-five of the forty-eight states in the union. The three states that have not accepted such a tax—Illinois, Massachusetts and New Jersey—rely on their large automobile registrations for highway funds. Kentucky and South Carolina have adopted the highest tax, 5 cents a gallon. The next highest tax is that in Virginia, 4 1-2 cents. Five states have a 4-cent tax and nine have a 3-cent tax. By far the greatest number use the 2-cent per gallon tax. In addition to the gas tax, every state reports a motor vehicle fee, which ranges from $3 for the averaged-sized car in California to $34 for the same type of car in Oregon.

THE BICYCLE BROUGHT NATION GOOD ROADS

Holland Cycle Club Helped Build Path to Grand Rapids

The modern highway owes a great deal to the ungainly bicycle of the eighties. In those days, when the front wheels measured some five feet in diameter, the stability of the wheel was not very great.

Headed by common and mounting was difficult. To overcome these difficulties of the ordinary bicycle, the so-called safety, was developed in 1885, which the pedals were carried on a separate shaft and the power was transmitted by chain and sprockets to the rear wheel.

Then came the development of the pneumatic tire and the demand for smoother surfaced roads for the use of the vehicle. The craze of cycling reached its height in the late nineties in the United States and clubs of wheelmen were organized in almost every state in the Union. Their main aim was the improvement of roads and the investment in highway construction dated from this campaign, which was launched by the wheelmen of the nineties.

It was not long until the automobile took up the work of propaganda and from 1896 to the present day, hardly a month has gone by without the launching of propaganda in the interest of the good roads movement.

Old timers will remember the time when the Holland cycle club fostered the building of a "safety path" from Grand Rapids to Macatawa. The Holland club co-operated with the Grand Rapids club and both clubs started the path from their respective ends to Zeeland, as far as can be remembered, and was instrumental in having the Macatawa road improved as far as "Shady Side", now Jenison Park.

State Seeks Deer Yards

A canvass of the available sites for deer yards in the Upper Peninsula will be undertaken by the game refuge division of the conservation department shortly after the first of the year. If possible some of these sites will be purchased outright by the State for permanent preservation; others will be leased from the owners with the understanding that the timber growth is not to be removed during the life of the lease.

HOLLAND CASE MAY ALTER LIQUOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

Prohibition enforcement officers are in a fair way of having restored to them the right, when they are seeking evidence against violators, to "follow their nose," writes John Fitzgibbon, staff correspondent of the Detroit News. By this is meant that the statute permitting, an officer can obtain a search warrant if he smells the aroma of home brew or the like in the making coming from a building.

A provision that aroma was ground for a search warrant was quietly stricken from the statute at the regular session two years ago and nearly a year after the supreme court had approved its validity, Senator Seth Q. Pulver, of Owosso, now sponsors a bill to restore the provision.

The Supreme Court took cognizance of the matter in the case of Mitchell Schregardus, in 1924. Schregardus had been convicted, in Ottawa county, of making and selling home brew at his home. The officers' testimony was that they smelled the fumes of home brew coming from the house and saw men leaving the premises who plainly had been drinking. They searched the house on a warrant and found a quantity of home brew and an outfit for making it. The defense was that the aroma was not sufficient ground for a search warrant, but the supreme court held that it was and affirmed the conviction in a quality phrased opinion written by Justice Howard West and concurred in by the entire court. One paragraph in the decision, which was handed down March 5, 1924, reads:

"Brewing of beer and fermentation of ingredients into wine send forth odors of their own. Assaults seeking evidence may employ his sense of smell and, if he sniffs liquor, follow his nose to the place the smell leads him. Every hungry school boy can tell by his sense of smell before reaching the kitchen door the mainstay for dinner. The fragrance of pumpkin pie and fried cakes, the aroma of coffee, jams, jellies and preserves in the making, and the odors from cooking cabbage, onions and turnips go beyond the kitchen door. So do the odors of brewing mash and the fermentation of wine masses. Defendant evidently overlooked this fact and now, to liberally paraphrase an old saying, he blames the brew and ferment scent for betraying the safety of the house door lent. Private residences lose their immunity from search warrants if they are places of public resort, or if used for the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors."—Detroit News

Two-Color Theme Important in Crepe Frocks for Spring

By JULIA BOTTOMLEY

latter is used for the blouse below the bolero outline and for the collar and below-the-elbow sleeve puffs. Another color version which could be successfully worked out in this frock would be that of green and pink with monkey skin, the new pinkish tone introduced this season. Which all goes to show that the two-color theme is playing a tremendously important part in the styling of crepe, also crepe-satin frocks for afternoon wear.

WHAT with a notably "different" play on color and a changing mood of the silhouette it is just one thrill after another along the pathway of spring and summer fashions.

Especially are new color combinations and effects being whirled into the arena of the mode at a dizzying rate. Fashionists are defining color in the plural. This color compose idea, which is the underlying principle of most of the fashionable color schemes, interprets two methods, that of combining various tones and tints of the same color, or using contrast shades.

It is the modish color plus color idea which so enhances the attractive frock in this picture. For this model the designer employs queen's blue crepe with french gray. The

The fact that so many of the new materials are soft and often sheer gives impetus to the new graceful silhouette. (© 1927, Western Newspaper Union.)

In the best interclass track meet ever staged in the Holland high gym, the seniors emerged triumphant over the juniors by collecting 38 points to their nearest rivals, the juniors, 27 points, while the first year won 22 points, while the second year men turned in a total of 15 points.

The meet was decidedly in the juniors' favor for the first seven events, but the seniors collected 41 points and a second in the last five events to clinch the meet.
 All but one record was broken this year, that being the broad jump. Wolters, a junior, clipped 40 seconds off the mile record of last year, while the seniors ran the eight lap relay three seconds faster than last year.
 Marcotte led in individual points, with ten to his credit. Bittner amassed nine, while Klinge won eight and also helped with the relay. Mr. Hartman has a wealth of good prospects in the lower classes in such men as Marcotte, Lyons, Judkins, Dale Smith, Elenbaas, Korstanje, Enfield and Working. He will also have a good track team this year and meets are scheduled with South Haven, Kalamazoo, Normal, and a triangular meet with G. R. South and Grand Haven.

Following are the results of the meet:
 25 yd dash—First: Marcotte, Frosh; second: Dale Smith, Soph; third: Judkins, Frosh; time: 3 2-5; former record: 3 3-5.

100 yd dash—First: Marcotte, Frosh; second: Klinge, Senior; third: Elenbaas, Soph; time: 12 4-5; former record: 13 3-4.

220 yd dash—First: Klinge, Senior; second: Lyons, Soph; third: Judkins, Frosh; time: 29 3-5; former record: 30 2-5.

440 yd dash—First: Sandy, Junior; second: Hofsteen, Soph; third: Zietlow, Junior; time: 65 seconds; former record: 66 2-5.

880 yd dash—First: De Weerd, Senior; second: Enfield, Soph; third: Bittner, Junior; time: 2:23; former record: 2:27.

Shot Put—First: Exo, Senior; second: Bittner, Junior; third: Working, Soph; distance: 38 7/8; former record: 37 1/4.

8 lap relay—First: Seniors (See-kamp, Martin, Paulus, Klinge); second: the Sophs and Frosh; time: 1:28 2-5; former time: 1:29 2-5.
